

The Royal Crescent Foundation Stone Day Sunday 21 May 2017

11am - 3pm

At the Royal Crescent

A free event celebrating 250 years of the Royal Crescent in Bath.

LOTTERY FUNDED

The Royal Crescent Foundation Stone Day

Sunday 21 May 2017

11am - 3pm

Celebrating the 250th anniversary the world famous Royal Crescent.

Experience the craftsmanship that built the Royal Crescent, join a walking tour exploring the lives of residents from the building's history and enjoy the Natural Theatre Company bring the laying of the foundation stone to life.

11am: The Natural Theatre Company embark with the Foundation Stone on a procession through Bath from Widcombe - catch up with them along the route at Southgate (11.30ish), Stall Street (11.40), along Milsom Street (12.00), in the Circus (12.15) ending at the Royal Crescent (12.30).

at the Royal Crescent

11.00am: If Walls Could Talk walking tour of the Royal Crescent.

11.30am: If Walls Could Talk walking tour of the Royal Crescent.

11.30am - 2pm: John Wood the Younger (and the Natural Theatre Company) at the Royal Crescent.

12.30: Foundation Stone laying ceremony with the Natural Theatre Company at No.1 Royal Crescent.

1.30pm: If Walls Could Talk walking tour of the Royal Crescent
Dementia Friendly.

2.30pm: If Walls Could Talk walking tour of the Royal Crescent
British Sign Language.

11am - 3pm - How the Royal Crescent was built. Demonstrations of the crafts that built the Royal Crescent, including joinery, stonemasonry and blacksmithing, you may even be able to have a go yourself.

@royalcres250

royalcrescent250

royalcrescent250

www.no1royalcrescent.org.uk/explore